the price of high quality quarter horses by limiting the supply of horses which may participate in AQHA sanctioned competitions, and that the AQHA implemented the rule with the intent to abuse its market position as one of the largest associations responsible for sponsoring quarter horse competitions.

Discussion

When ruling on a motion to dismiss the Court must accept all of the factual allegations in a complaint as true and draw all reasonable inferences in the plaintiff's favor. Erickson v. Paradus, 551 U.S. 89, 93 (2007)(citing Bell Atl Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555-6 (2007)). Defendant's 12(b)(6) motion fails because Plaintiffs' complaint satisfies the general notice federal pleading standard. Moreover, the doctrine of non-intervention is inapplicable where a plaintiff alleges that a voluntary association's actions are illegal. Hatley v. American Quarter Horse Ass'n, 552 F.2d 646, 655 (5th Cir. 1977). Defendant's motion to dismiss is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed this the 18th day of July, 2012.
